FOREWORD

Welcome to our 3rd Edition of the Directory of Scientists and Technicians in Zambia. Human resource remains a key element in achieving aspirations of continental and global frameworks such as the STISA 2024 and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). It is important now more than ever for countries to understand the kind of capacity they possess within them in order for them to make informed decisions on the direction of their resources for human capital development. A critical mass of scientists is important to Zambia especially with the desire to industrialise.

The directory was first introduced as a means to encourage networking and information sharing among scientists in Zambia.

Today its use has grown not only are we using it for networking and information sharing but it is also being used to track our scientific and technological capacity in the country through provision of statistics on scientists and technicians according to their fields of science and technology. We are also able to derive statistics on scientists and technicians by gender.

The above are key indicators in accessing the human resource capability of the country as well as providing informed policy advice which is key in policy formulation and creation of a country strategy on human capital development.

The directory has also made it easier to forge strong partnerships and linkages for researchers within the country and with our strategic partners at the bilateral and multilateral levels.

It is our strong conviction that the directory will continue to contribute to key policy direction in S&T human capacity development and it is our sincere hope that the document continues to grow.

Our future plan is to make the directory accessible online through the NSTC website and capture a wider network of scientists and technicians in the country.

Mr. Owen Mgemzulu
Permanent Secretary
MINISTRY OF HIGHER EDUCATION

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The third edition of the directory of Scientists and Technologists has undergone some changes from its predecessor. The information unlike the earlier version has been grouped according to the various fields of Science and Technology as well as the qualifications grading as classified by the Frascati Manual.

Many thanks go to the institutions that responded to the call to update the directory. I further wish to thank the NSTC staff for their dedication and commitment in updating the Directory of Scientists and Technicians in Zambia.

Dr. Alfred. J. Sumani

Executive Secretary

Phd	Doctor of Philosophy

AGRICULTURAL SCIENCES

Agriculture remains the key priority sector in the growth and poverty reduction agenda of Zambia. Over 60 percent of the population derives its livelihood from agriculture. Despite Zambia experiencing strong economic growth in the recent past, agriculture has not performed well. In order to fully exploit agriculture, Zambia has developed well articulated agricultural policies and strategies which emphasize objectives such as attainment of food security, maximizing farmers' incomes, promoting sustainable agriculture, and enhancing private sector roles in input and output markets.

The section on agricultural science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the agricultural field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of agricultural science;

- ✍ Agronomy
- ✍ Agroforestry
- ✍ General Agriculture
- ✍ Crop Science
- ✍ Horticulture
- ✍ Variety Testing
- ✍ Plant Science
- ✍ Seed Technology
- ✍ Soil Science
- ✍ Food Science
- ✍ Entomology

NORTHERN TECHNICAL COLLEGE

ADVERT

College Background

Northern Technical College was established as an engineering skills training institution by a private charity in 1959. It was initially administered by a Board of Governors, the Commission of Technical Education and Vocation Training, the Department of Technical Education and Vocation Training and now by a Management Board established by the TEVET Act No. 13 of 1998.

Location

Northern Technical College (popularly known as NORTEC) is situated in the Kansenshi area of Ndola. It has two separate campuses. The main campus which houses administrative offices, Training Departments, Library, Recreation and Dining Hall and four Hostels has its entrance from Chela Road (off kwacha Road). The other campus comprising offour hostels and playing fields is situated between kwacha and FeiraRoads towards the city centre.

Our Vision

"A leading engineering institution in technical and vocational training in the region"

Mission Statement

"To provide quality technical and vocational training in order to meet industry needs and contribute to socio-economic development"

Northern Technical College (NORTEC) offers quality training in various courses in Full -Time, Distance learning programmes, Short intensive courses and Business and consultancy services.

1. Full Time Courses

The college offers Full- Time courses ranging from Craft to Diploma Courses under the following departments:-

1. Applied Sciences and Business Studies
2. Automotive Department
3. Electrical Department
4. Mechanical Department

2. Short Intensive Skills Development Courses

The College also conducts Short Intensive Skills Development Courses in April, August and December when the college is on recess or, can be conducted on the dates, which are convenient to our clients. We conduct the short courses either at NORTEC or at the company's premises.

3. Open Distance Learning Programmes

The College offers flexible distance learning programmes in various technical courses.

For more information please visit our website on www.nortec.edu.zm or call us on Tel:260-212 -680142/144, Cell: 260-979-549787 or email on: principal@nortec.edu.zm

WHY STUDY AT NORTEC

1. Provides Quality Training
2. Qualified lecturing Staff
3. A renowned College in Zambia
4. Producer of best graduates
5. Security for your Future
6. Conducive learning environment
7. A TEVETA registered Institution
8. Affordable Tuition fees

VETERINARY MEDICINE AND ANIMAL SCIENCE

For many years now, humans rely on animals for food, labor, fiber and companionship in some cases. The work of a Veterinarian and an Animal Scientist therefore remains key in ensuring the health of the animals, ensuring animal high production levels on the farm which in turn result in efficiency and optimal profits.

The section on veterinary and animal science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of veterinary and animal science;

- ✓Veterinary Epidemiology & Public Health
- ✓Veterinary Pathology
- ✓General Veterinary Medicine
- ✓Veterinary Parasitology
- ✓Veterinary Microbiology
- ✓Veterinary Biotechnology
- ✓Animal Health
- ✓Animal Nutrition
- ✓Animal Production/Reproduction

DID YOU KNOW YOU CAN ACCESS FEMALE POST GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY AT THE MINISTRY OF HIGHER EDUCATION TO STUDY AT MASTERS AND PHD LEVEL AT A LOCAL UNIVERSITY?

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES ADMINISTERED BY THE NSTC

Strategic Research Fund (SRF)

The Government of the Republic of Zambia through the Ministry of Higher Education created the Strategic Research Fund (SRF). The Fund is administered through a Fund Management Committee at the Ministry of Higher Education and implemented by the National Science and Technology Council (NSTC). The Fund support basic and applied research prescribed under national priority areas. The SRF mainly targets public and private Research and Development (R&D) Centres and Institutions, in order to streamline research and development and to effectively rationalize research resources.

Objective of SRF – The Fund aims to support research and development projects in specific research areas which can generate new knowledge in basic and applied sciences, and develop products or processes necessary for further development and commercialisation. It is also aimed at enhancing research capabilities and expertise within Zambia.

Research Areas – The research activities supported under the SRF are those focused towards meeting the industrial needs in new and emerging fields of science, engineering and technology in the context of national interest. The SRF supports research in the following areas:

- ✍ Industry; e.g. Alternative Energy; Materials sciences; Manufacturing
- ✍ Agriculture; e.g. Post harvest processing; plant and animal disease; crops and animal productivity etc.
- ✍ Health; e.g. HIV/AIDS; Malaria; Tuberculosis etc.
- ✍ Environment; e.g. Water and sanitation; Waste to wealth; Drought and desertification etc.
- ✍ ICT; e.g software development biometrics cybersecurity

Eligibility – The following are eligible to apply:

- ✍ Public and Private Science and Technology Research and Development (R&D) Centres/Institutions and Institutions of Higher Learning (IHL) that are registered with NSTC.
- ✍ Zambian graduate students studying or conducting research at institutions registered with NSTC.
- ✍ Individual Zambian researchers who are not in any institution shall be required to be affiliated to a registered R&D or learning institution.

(i) The research proposals should be practical and focussed towards problem solving in the identified priority research areas.

(ii) Proposals that demonstrate a strong multi-disciplinary and collaborative approach among researchers and institutions in Zambia are most preferred.

How to apply -The Strategic Research Fund is available to Zambian researchers who meet the requirements once a year on a competitive basis. Applicants are expected to submit a completed application form to NSTC within the call period for a particular year.

Research opportunities under the Bilateral Research Cooperation Programme. Currently running are the Zambia-South Africa and Zambia-Mozambique Joint Research Programmes. The funds are available to Zambian researchers and researchers in the two Countries.

Science and Technology Innovation Youth Fund (STIYF)

The Government of the Republic of Zambia created the Science and Technology Innovation Youth Fund (STIYF) aimed at assisting the youth to develop their Scientific and Technological innovations with specific focus on innovations that are relevant to the creation of employment and wealth.

The Fund is focused on enabling the youth innovators play a more significant role in the development of key sectors of the economy.

The Fund is administered under the Ministry of Higher Education through a Fund Management Committee and implemented by the National Science and Technology Council (NSTC) through a Technical and Financial Committee.

The overall objective of the STIYF is to promote the development and application of scientific and technological innovations by the youth for employment and wealth creation.

The specific objectives are:

- ✍ To support the development and piloting of scientific and technological innovations by the youth;
- ✍ To promote a culture of innovativeness among the youth and;
- ✍ To promote the acquisition and use of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) by youth innovators.
- ✍ The fund is available to Zambian Youth below the age of 36 years. The youth are eligible as individuals or as groups.

For the purpose of this Fund, an Innovation is “a new Scientific and/or Technological idea or process that changes a way of doing something and can be commercially successful”.

Eligible innovations shall be those:

Locally developed or adapted, and should as far as possible utilize local raw materials.

Addressing national priority areas highlighted in the National Development Plans , Vision 2030 and the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs); and falling in one or more of the approved areas for support each year, which may include value addition to raw materials; renewable & alternative energy; human and animal health; agriculture, livestock and fisheries; environment; water management; construction and building;

The STIYF is available annually on a competitive basis and prospective applicants are expected to submit a completed standard Application Form and a copy of their NRC or birth certificate to the NSTC.

FORESTRY

Forests and biodiversity are vital to all life forms. The more affluent the diversity of life, the greater the prospect for medical discoveries, economic development and adaptive responses to new challenges such as climate change. Forests need to be conserved because they serve as a watershed, habitat to millions of animals, have great economic value and finally climate control.

The section on forestry gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of forestry;

✍ General Forestry

TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT & ADVISORY UNIT

The Technology Development and Advisory Unit (TDAU) of the University of Zambia (UNZA) operates as a semi-autonomous engineering research and development unit. TDAU was established in 1975 to provide a link between the expertise of the university and the needs of society at large. Over 40 years of expertise and experience inform our ability to offer both commercial consultancy and engineering solutions to clients.

TDAU is a unique institution in Zambia, acting as a nexus between the public and private sectors and capitalizing on cutting edge innovation techniques. All of the products and services offered by the Unit are demand-driven and take their cue from the customer. TDAU is Zambia's leader in relevant sustainable technologies--innovations designed with particular significance granted to the environmental, economic, cultural and societal characteristics of the end-users.

The University of Zambia was established by an Act of Parliament No.66 of 1965 whereas TDAU was established in 1975. TDAU was established to provide a link between the expertise of the University and the industry and society at large.

The TDAU is managed through a ten-member Board of Directors, chaired by the University of Zambia Vice-Chancellor. The Board meets quarterly to consider progress, financial reports, achievements and challenges the Unit faces. TDAU is organized in five sections: Production, Research and Consultancy (Product Development), Administration, Marketing, Information and Finance.

The mission of TDAU is to promote sustainable human development through the development, acquisition and dissemination of technology, production processes and management know-how appropriate to society. Our aim is to be the leading technology product and process research and development institution providing competitive appropriate technology solutions for the betterment of society.

Our core business includes the following:

- Engineering Innovations
- Design and Prototyping
- Product Manufacturing
- Assessments and Feasibility Studies
- Short Trainings and Demonstrations

FISHERIES

Zambia has 15 million hectares of water in the form of rivers, lakes and swamps, which provide the basis for extensive freshwater fisheries. Everyone in Zambia, irrespective of socio-economic status, enjoy fish. However, demand for domestic fish for consumption still outstrips production. The sector, because of its mostly rural setting, continues to contribute significantly to rural development in terms of employment and income generation and reducing poverty. It is estimated that the sector supports more than 300 000 people deriving their livelihood directly as fishers and fish farmers, or indirectly as traders, processors and other service providers. (FAO)

The section on fisheries gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of fisheries science;

ZAMBIA SCIENCE CONFERENCE

In 2016, the National Science and Technology Council NSTC held its first ever Zambia Science Conference. The conference was held in collaboration with our partners the German Research Foundation (DFG) and the National Research Foundation (NRF) of South Africa.

The Conference is a flagship event which will be held annually targeting researchers, research and innovation managers, academia, university and college students, the media and policy makers. The conference is aimed at;

1. Provide a platform for knowledge and experience sharing among the scientific community, researchers, local institutions and international participants.
2. Share knowledge and concepts on how best to strengthen and operationalize science, technology and innovation policy agendas.
3. Networking and creation of new partnerships in the science enterprise
4. Facilitate development of linkages between the scientific community and policy makers' in order for them to adequately address the needs of the public in as far as science, technology and innovation issues are concerned.

In 2016 the theme was focused on Agriculture (Animal, Soil, Plant and Horticulture). In 2017 the conference will focus on Animal Sciences and it will be held alongside the Global Research Council Annual Meeting in Livingstone from 22nd to 23rd November, 2017.

Look out for announcements on future dates, theme and venue on our website, Facebook page and local newspapers.

MEDICAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES

The health of a people is an important element in the growth of a country. People need to be healthy in order for them to be more productive and in turn contribute to economic growth in a country.

The section on medical and health science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of medical and health science;

- ✍ Pathology
- ✍ Environmental Health
- ✍ Pharmacy
- ✍ Paediatrics
- ✍ Public Health
- ✍ Psychiatry
- ✍ Physiological Sciences
- ✍ Medical & Surgical Sciences
- ✍ Nursing Sciences
- ✍ Medical Microbiology

ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY

The majority of issues facing the country today such as water availability, energy security and climate change need engineers to solve them. Innovations in the field of engineering and technology lead to increased import and export of goods and services to global economies which in turn increases foreign exchange reserves.

The section on engineering and technology science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of engineering and technology science;

- ✍ Agriculture Engineering
- ✍ Mechanical Engineering
- ✍ Geomatic Engineering
- ✍ Civil Engineering
- ✍ Communication Engineering
- ✍ Computer Science and Information Technology
- ✍ Electrical Engineering
- ✍ Electronics
- ✍ Power Electrical
- ✍ Metal Fabrication
- ✍ Mineral Science

NATURAL SCIENCES

Natural science is a branch of science concerned with the description, prediction and understanding of natural phenomena, based on observation and empirical evidence. Natural Scientists use scientific methods to study and advise based on evidence from the observed subject or phenomena.

The section on natural science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of natural science;

- ✍ Biological Sciences
- ✍ Biotechnology
- ✍ Chemical Sciences
- ✍ Earth & Environmental Sciences
- ✍ Mathematics
- ✍ Natural Resources
- ✍ Physical Sciences
- ✍ Science Laboratory
- ✍ Biomedical Sciences

GLOBAL RESEARCH COUNCIL

The Global Research Council is a virtual organization, comprised of the heads of science and engineering funding agencies from around the world, dedicated to promoting the sharing of data and best practices for high-quality collaboration among funding agencies worldwide.

The worldwide growth of public support for research has presented an opportunity for countries large and small to work in concert across national borders. Cooperation and collaboration can enhance the quality of science, avoid unnecessary duplication, provide economies of scale, and address issues that can only be solved by working together. Heads of research funding agencies have a responsibility to meet these objectives on behalf of the research community.

The Purposes of the Global Research Council are:

- ✎ To improve communication and cooperation among funding agencies;
- ✎ To promote the sharing of data and best practices for high-quality research cooperation;
- ✎ To provide a forum for regular meetings of the Heads of Research Councils;
- ✎ To respond to opportunities and to address issues of common concern in the support of research and education;
- ✎ To be a resource for those institutions wishing to build a world-class research landscape; and
- ✎ To explore mechanisms that support the global science enterprise and the worldwide research community.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Social science is concerned with society and the relationships among individuals within a society. Because of this, social scientists can open up debate and give us a say in shaping our collective future, others working in interdisciplinary teams have made their mark in the area of human welfare and development. it offers multiple perspectives on society, informs social policy and supports us in holding our politicians and our media to account.

The section on social science gives a detailed description on scientists and technicians in the field in Zambia. This information is broken down into the following fields of social science;

R&D Registration at NSTC

Why Register

1. Registration of Research and Development activities is a legal requirement as prescribed by the Science and Technology Act No. 26 1997. Any contravention in respect of the rules and regulations set out in the Science and Technology Act No. 26 of 1997 are liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand penalty units or a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.
2. Registration with the NSTC further promotes collaboration and sharing of information between and/or among institutions.
3. Institutions stand to benefit from the competitive research grants offered by the National Science and Technology Council.

REGISTRATION AND RENEWAL OF REGISTRATON OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTIONS /CENTRES AND ACTIVITIES FOR THE YEAR 2017

The National Science and Technology Council (NSTC) is a statutory body established by the Science and Technology Act No. 26 of 1997, to Coordinate, Promote, Regulate, and Advise government on Science and Technology Policy and Development. The functions of the NSTC among others include the regulation of research in science and technology and to register institutes and centres in the science and technology sector in accordance with PART IV section 9 of the Science and Technology Act No. 26 of 1997.

It is therefore a legal requirement as prescribed by the Science and Technology Act No. 26 of 1997 that All Research and Development (R&D) institutions and Centers in Zambia are to be inspected and registered with the NSTC. Registration with the NSTC further promotes collaboration and sharing of information between institutions. Any contravention in respect of the rules and regulations set out in the Science and Technology Act No. 26 of 1997 will be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand penalty units or a term of imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.

Such registration of Research and Development Institutions/Centers and Research activities is conditional upon fulfillment of registration requirements and payment of registration/renewal of registration fees.

Kindly take note that the registration period is between January and March, of every year, as such, the NSTC strongly advises that such registration is done within this period. For any further details and application forms on the registration exercise, R&D Institutions and Centers are advised to contact the undersigned:
